We're for wholesome fun and seaside serenity.

Explore our country's religious traditions, discover the peaceful beauty of the Atlantic shore and enjoy some old-fashioned fun on one of the most family-friendly boardwalks in America. New Jersey offers recreational, historical and cultural activities that will be the highlight of your faith-based tours, whether your group is comprised of youth groups, families or seniors. Plan your tour with New Jersey as a stand-alone destination or use our resources to supplement New York City, Philadelphia and Lancaster, PA, and Washington, D.C. packaged tours.

If you have only one day in New Jersey, choose from these iconic destinations:

CAMP REVIVAL

Be inspired by Ocean Grove's history as a camp meeting association and visit its Tabernacle, Tent City and Great Auditorium with its majestic pipe organ, one of the 20 largest in the world. Plan a walking tour to view Victorian architecture and learn more about this National Historic Landmark.

ALL-AMERICAN BOARDWALK

See why Ocean City was voted "Best Beach" and "Best Boardwalk" in 2014 by New Jersey Monthly readers. This "dry" seaside town features eight miles of beach and two-and-a-half miles of boardwalk with a full eight blocks of family amusements. The Music Pier is home of the Ocean City Pops.

SEASIDE GUARDIANS

Located in some of the state's most beautiful settings, New Jersey's 11 public lighthouses have been beacons of hope and safety for over a century. Check out Sandy Hook, the oldest operating lighthouse in the nation, or climb the 199 steps of the Cape May Lighthouse for an amazing view.

A "FITTING MONUMENT TO THE FAITH"

A National Historic Landmark, the Newark Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart stands as a splendid example of French Gothic architecture. It offers free Wednesday noon concerts featuring the great Schantz Organ, followed by a tour of the Cathedral.

FAITH & FUN ITINERARY ADD-ONS

If you have two or more days in New Jersey, consider adding these great attractions:

+ | CAMPUS INSPIRATION

Stroll its charming downtown and tour the campus of Princeton University, as well as its art museum. (The collection includes an example of stained glass from Chartres Cathedral.) Princeton is also home of Princeton Theological Seminary, the second oldest seminary in the United States and site of the world's second largest theological library. princetontourcompany.com

+ | FINDING RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

Liberty State Park in Jersey City features a historic railroad station, sweeping Hudson River and Manhattan views and the 9/11 Empty Sky Memorial. It also offers private coaches an ideal departure location for ferry trips to the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island, where millions came to seek opportunity and religious freedom. Be sure to plan ahead at statuecruises.com. libertystatepark.org

+ | LIVE ABUNDANTLY

There's a reason why we're called the Garden State. Your group can visit orchards, roadside stands and farm markets, even "pick your own." In 2012, New Jersey was the third largest producer of cranberries, bell peppers and spinach in the nation, and our food festivals celebrate everything from the clam to the tomato! jerseyfresh.nj.gov

+ | FAMILY DINNER IS BACK!

Boasting the largest concentration of diners in the world, New Jersey offers 600+ diners across the state. Known for their family-friendly atmospheres, good food and affordable pricing, New Jersey's nostalgic diners provide a welcome meal stop on your group tour. njdiners.com
